The Honorable Richard A. Jones
United States District Judge

Re: United States v. Kou Wei Chiu

Dear Judge Jones:

I have been asked by Michele Shaw, attorney for the Dr. Chiu, to comment on the appropriateness of Dr. Chiu being allowed to use public transportation, including commercial airplanes, during the time Dr. Chiu completes his sentence regarding the above matter. I have reviewed letters from Dr. Chiu's psychotherapist, Dr. David Sacks, and from his psychiatrist, Dr. Beth Baxter. They are of the opinion that Dr. Chiu poses no current threat to the public that would preclude his using public transportation, including airplane, train and bus travel.

I also met with Dr. Chiu this morning and conducted a brief psychiatric interview and mental status examination. I agree with Dr. Chiu's clinicians that Dr. Chiu does not pose a threat to the public that would preclude his using public transportation.

I hope this information can be taken into account regarding Dr. Chiu's sentencing on Friday, April 4, 2008.

Respectfully,

David L. Dunner, MD, FACPsych
Director, Center for Anxiety and Depression
Professor Emeritus, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences
